

to replace the outgoing members, according to Rule 4, the following gentlemen being elected:—

Messrs. C. W. Campbell, Edward Peake and C. M. Tate; and as substitutes, Messrs. W. Hutchinson, W. R. Congreve and J. Grant.

It was proposed that Rule 13 be so altered as to reduce the number of members required to form a quorum from 30 to 24.

After a short discussion this was lost.

It was proposed that Rule 7 be so altered as to admit persons to Membership at the age of 16 instead of 18. Very little interest was shown in this, and on being put to the vote it was negatived.

Next followed a proposition with regard to the Article treating of the Election of Lady Members which, after being amended and counter-amended, was finally passed in the following form, which we give "in extenso" for the benefit of the ladies:—

"That ladies on being elected by the Committee, be admitted to the advantages of the Circulating Library and to the Entertainments on payment of an annual subscription of 1008 mpc. payable half-yearly in advance with the usual entrance fee."

The result of this is, that ladies pay 1008 mpc. as entrance fee, and a subscription of 1008 mpc. per annum. The alteration in the above article has rendered the posting of their names unnecessary; hence we hope to see our lady friends come forward as members, which will still further stimulate us in our exertions to give satisfaction to the society. If the reading room of the society be found inconvenient for ladies to leave their communications, the Secretary will be most happy to receive them, either at Messrs. Mackern's or Mr. Grant's library. We beg that in all cases addresses should be given.

The following is a list of the present executive officers and committee:—

President—W. L. Jordan F.R.G.S.
Vice-President—J. T. Ramsay.
Hon. Sec.—J. W. Williams.
Hon. Treas.—A. P. Sedgwick.
Hon. Librarian—M. Munro.
Committee—E. Ponke, F.R. Head cook, W. Mackern, Professor Egan, C. Campbell, A. Crobie, and O. M. Tate; with Messrs. Hutchinson, Grant and Congreve as substitutes.

INDUSTRIAL ESTABLISHMENT.
(From 'The Industrial'.)

Amongst the many establishments that Mr. J. S. Lamas has been so graphically describing in the columns of the club's papers, we specially note the great carpenter's business carried on by Messrs. Sackmann and Co., Mr. Sackmann is one of those few who like Messrs. Biecker, Hammer and Peltzer, &c., have, in spite of all difficulties, succeeded in their efforts and dotted B. Ayres with industrial establishments. We do not point only to the simple importance of the carpenter's establishment with all its beautiful machinery and exquisite wood, but also to its moral value in a country where sheep farming and cattle raising are considered the only elements to rise in life.

Such a vulgar and common error needs no comment; it does not escape the judgment of the most superficial critic, that the great value of our land and the large capitals invested in cattle and sheep are subject to drought, inundations, revolutions and disheartening uncertainty of life and property; much more so today, when the otherwise insufficient police force has been turned to account in helping personal interests. All cannot be fanciful. We are in the XIX. century, and no more in the primitive and biblical times when Abraham kept flocks of sheep. It is, therefore, a consolation to see in districts raising their heads in every street of town, in spite of prejudices and the present greed for Government employ.

Mr. Sackmann's establishment, with all its machinery and fine work shops, keeping hundreds of men in constant work, is the very best proof of progress and prosperity. Situated between Calles Montevideo and Cuyo, it covers an area of 4,900 square varas. A steam engine of 25 horse-power and a boiler of 50 mpc. are the machinery of the establishment; saws of all sizes and shapes are seen everywhere; one of them is adapted for planks of 25 inches, another for planks of 10 inches. There is a fine circular saw with all the necessary appendages for the quality and size of the timbers. The grand vertical saw is reserved for timber of large dimensions, up to 1 metro 15 centimetres. This splendid machine was made in Messrs. Schwartz's establishment.

There are also vertical and horizontal planing machines; the iron rest of the first one is five metres long by 70 centimetres width and 6 centimetres thick; the second one has the same proportions, but is only fifty centimetres wide. There are many other machines, the names of which are familiar to the engineers, but are so many enigmas to the neophyte who first trends the establishment. There are numberless machines for moulding and fancy work. There is a machine for hammering with the force of 1000 lbs. There is a special machine for filing the saws.

There are two workshops: the first one has twenty carpenter tables, the other 36. In these departments all the hand work is done. The work now in hand is most varied.

The iron and bronze deposits represent 70,000 dollars. Five large wood deposits, with all kinds of timber from Tucuman and the Chaco and different parts of the world, represent 70,000 dollars; the machinery cost $550,000 dollars. The establishment gives occupation to 100 men and their families, not including those who carry on the outside business; the establishment also possesses a great many vehicles, thus providing work and an honorable maintenance to numerous families.

This establishment is an honor to Buenos Ayres; it gives employment to many poor people, and is a credit to Mr. Sackmann.

CLUB INDUSTRIAL.
A general meeting of the Club Industrial was held on Thursday night in their new saloons 'Altos del Colón.'

The President of the Club, Señor Jimenez, gave an account of the last half-year's work, from which it seems that the club is vigilantly watching the interests of the manufacturing interests of this Republic. The finances are also in a very satisfactory condition, and the membership increasing, reaching in numbers close on to 400.

The Vice-President, Señor J. L. Lamas, in a very eloquent speech proposed the following gentlemen as honorary members of the club, in recognition of the great services rendered by them in the Legislature and Municipality in favour of the Exhibition:—

Ex-Mayor Guerrero,
Dr. Bernardo Zoloviero,
Dr. Terrero,
Sr. Jose Hernandez.

These were elected by acclamation. Five members of the directing commission and fifteen 'empenados' retired by rotation at this meeting and an election took place to fill the vacancies.

The new saloons of the club, which are the rooms formerly occupied by the National Department of Engineers, are very tastefully fitted up, and, from their spaciousness and splendid situation, form one of the best club houses in the city. It would be a good move for the club to become a social as well as industrial club, as by this means they could entertain the illustrious visitors who are expected during the Exhibition. At any rate they have here a splendid standpoint from which to view their handiwork, and halls which we will yet, no doubt, see illumined for a banquet in honour of the success of the Exhibition.

THE GENERAL ELECTIONS.
9th April.

The telegram published this morning shows that 463 members have been elected to the new House of Commons classified as—

Liberal, 272; Conservatives, 163; Home Rulers 34.

This leaves 189 members still to be elected. It is difficult with the meagre information at hand to predict how these may affect parties, but I will hazard the following: I take the elected to represent all the boroughs in the Kingdom and some of the counties, these latter certainly uncontented ones.

The former House of Commons sent to Parliament the following members for counties.

	Lib.	Con.	H.R.
England.....	33	151	—
Scotland.....	17	15	—
Ireland.....	5	21	39
—	55	187	39

Therefore about one half of the above must have been decided and included in the 460. Assuming that the 39 Home Rulers in the Irish counties will be re-elected, we have 118 members still to be elected from the English and Scotch counties. Taking about 50 p. cent as the proportion, it follows that 26 Liberals and 92 Tories would be returned.

The House would thus stand as under

	Lib.	Con.	H.R.
Already elected.....	272	163	34
To elect.....	26	92	39
—	298	255	73

or a working majority for the Liberals of 43, excluding the Home Rulers altogether.

Most certainly, however, the Tories could hold their own in the counties, and every vote they lose counts to us on a division.

Yours &c.

NOTES AND QUERIES.
To the Editor of the Standard,
Sir,

As I see in to-day's Standard that your paper is open for scientific and literary questions, I kindly beg you to publish the following one: What is the work for the letters 's' or 'ss', 'lt', put under addresses, fit-

Mr E.T. Muhihall, 'ss. lt.' Buenos Ayres. These letters are generally used in Europe on directing a letter, but only when neither title nor profession is put in the address.

If one of your readers could answer this question he would very much oblige.

Our special Bona reporter gives the following:—
The German barque Pádelo is passing out.

We welcome Mr. Urban Smith as our new comfortable broker; we have no doubt he will be the most successful.

Mr. Hays, one of our leading American merchants, will leave for the United States with his family on 21st in Kepler to catch the Bala in Rio. Mr. Fernando Brankiet, the well known bean-grower, will also leave next month for Europe with his family.

There was much said on 'Change about next that has come by wire from Havre announcing the sale of a lot of wool, bought here in Nov. last at an average price of 4s. 1d. and which has realized all round frs. 2.05. Giving an shipment of the value of 800,000 frs. a clear profit of 160,000 frs. or 25,000 sgr. Such figures tell the wool season we close.

Exchange was done today for Libanets' bank at 49 and 414, and France on Paris 4.21 and 5.24, although some of the banks, they say, took at 5.25.

Freights no alteration. The Dago clears today, and the Canadian has made large engagements in current rates.

The sale of a part cargo of pine at 11½ in lighters reported.

Dry hides scarce and hard to find; 61 ds for Corrientes and 55 to 65 for Entre Rios.

The barque Warner goes to the Boca to Casares. Cargo sold to arrive at 11½.

The cargo of flour loading in Valparaiso for Plata has, we hear, been ordered to Rio.

Salas barque Menna A. for Havre, by J.P. Boyer, 11½ tons wool, 475 bags animal charcoal, 10,168 k bones.

The American barque B. Watson, from New-York, has entered with a large assorted cargo. The sale of a cargo of animal, 8 leagues from here, reported for 240,000 mpc.

We cannot see where the sale of a lot of fine Magdalena wool at 190 mpc. per arroba. At the Plaza One nothing in wool, neither Daggan or Umas have any in deposit, and nothing coming in. In the Stock Market there is a real always arriving and selling at splendid rates.

There was great talk on 'Change today about the defeat of the Tories in England, and we refer our readers to a letter of the subject in another column. Those who wish to see the unadorned of England at the head of affairs rejoice at the Liberal triumph.

Messrs. G. Hart & Bonin sold the following from Patagonia:—
600 ar. wool with and without abrojo at $35 and 90.

Dr Villages has been named as arbitrator to succeed Dr Quintana in the case between the Government and the contractor of the Rio Cuarto Railway. It is about high time that this railway was settled.

The meeting of the shareholders of the Nueva Compañia Salada will be held on Sunday, 25th inst., to hear the report of the Directors, and we suppose to declare a dividend.

In a few days a piece of land in the district of San Juan de Flores will be put up at auction. The two-lot valuation is 40,000 mpc. For this very same land seven years ago a million and a half mpc. was offered and refused. Generations must pass away before the property in question will be valued at such a figure.

It appears that the San Cloud feast, of which we gave a report the other day, have yielded to the Hospital fund the splendid sum of $995,000 mpc. Every Freemason in the country joined in the cause, and there was no division of opinion as to the distribution of the charity.

The wheat crop of the district of Carmelo, in the Banda Oriental amounts to 20,700 fan., which is a very respectable harvest.

The Rosita Custom House receipts for the month of March amounted to 179,614 fanetes, of which 158,772 fanetes were import duties, and 20,842 fanetes export duties. This shows how active is the present trade of Rosario.

Application has been made to the Government by Don Pablo Balasco for the renting of a large piece of land and monte on the River Uruguay in the great Chaco for a term of years, for the purpose of making charcoal. Concessionaire offers to pay the Government 10 per cent of the profits; and we understand a lease will be given on these terms.

It is rumored that Don Nicolas Calvo will be named Argentine Minister in Montevideo to succeed Mr. Villages, who was understood resigns.

The receipts of the Custom House on 1st Wednesday are said to be the heaviest ever known for one day, having reached the enormous sum of 178,000 fanetes. It is difficult to understand from what source the great increase of receipts has sprung, possibly money sent down from the Interior Custom House. Our imports show no such increase, and as for our exports they are rather declining.

There was great fun in political circles on 'Change to day, owing to the very curious report that General Rosas, in the event of his withdrawal from the Presidential election, will declare in favour of General Mitre. This news has completely changed the opinions of friends of the brokers respecting the political career of General Rosas, and is about the best joke we have heard of.
